

The Essential Guide to Sumer

Table of Contents

Chapter 1 : What does it look like?

Map: Sumer and its neighbours at the end of the III millennium BC

Map: The Land of Sumer and its landscapes

Chapter 2: Sumer nowadays: Great King Šulgi

Sumer timeline

A well-run administration

The royal family

Is King Šulgi a god?

Chapter 3: Who are the Sumerians?

The Sumerians, city-dwellers

Who else lives in Sumer?

Who are the Akkadians?

Martu people

Chatting with Sumerians

Topics to avoid in Sumer

Fashion

Chapter 4: Travelling around.

- Travelling by road
- Travelling by boat
- The best way between cities

Chapter 5: What is on the menu?

- At the fish stall
- From the garden: fruits and vegetables
- Meat and poultry
- Spices
- Drinks
- Sumerian specials

Chapter 6: Where to stay?

- About Sumerian nights
- Areas to avoid for the nights
- Low Budget – Backpackers
- Medium Budget – Taverns and resthouses
- High Budget – Guesthouses (DDSak network)

Chapter 7: Travel safe! Health and cleanliness

- Are the Sumerian cities safe?
 - Friendly and dangerous beasts
- Quick solutions for small injuries
 - Tummy aches
 - Mosquito bites and other insects
 - Sun stroke and sunburns
 - Ghosts and demons
- How to stay clean?
 - In the bathroom: Sumerian toiletries and perfumes
- Gula temples
 - Gula's dogs
- Sumerian practitioners: diviners and healers
 - Consulting a diviner (maššugidgid)
 - Visiting Sumerian healers (azu and mašmaš)
 - “There must be an incantation for that”

Chapter 8: Sightseeing and shopping

- Being a tourist in a Sumerian city
- Our picks
- In the countryside
 - Ruined mounds
 - Cities off the beaten tracks
 - Around Lagaš
 - Around Uruk
- Shopping
 - In the market
- About Sumerian temples
 - The city and its god: a close relationship
 - Lives of the gods in their temples
- Visiting a Sumerian temple: what to expect?
 - How to behave in a Sumerian temple?
 - The ziqqurrat
 - Inside a Sumerian temple
 - Worshippers' statues

Chapter 9: Having fun!

Sumerian festivals

Festival calendars

The great Akiti festivals

The “Sacred Marriage” rites

Agricultural festivals

Festivals for the dead

The dying gods

Moon festivals

Gods’ boat trips

Being in Sumer during a festival

Processions

Street shows

Animal tamers

Wrestling games

Sumerian musicians and singers

Sumerian laments

Story-tellers

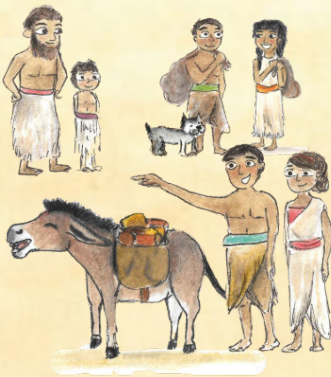

Feasting

Feasting with the king

Feasting with the gods

District banquet

Chapter 10: When to go and get ready!

Weather and Festival calendars

Travelling in the summer

Travelling in the winter

Sumerian and time: the calendars

Get ready!

